

Minutes of AGM held in James St South 9th Feb 2018

Attendees as per sign-in sheet

The meeting was called to order at 7.30 by Ciara Gallagher who welcomed attendees and introduced the speaker Dr Marley, his presentation discussed the background to the red flag referral system, gave us advice on how to improve the quality of our referrals and showed some interesting cases outlining the processing and outcomes on this red flag pathway.

Minutes of previous AGM were circulated and accepted as correct

Report of retiring board was given verbally as follows... the FGDP is in good health with steadily increasing numbers, there is an active study group with 17 attendees this year between parts 1 and 2, the pass rate for study club members is 100% and a special thank-you to David Mann for his hard work in this field.

FGDP are currently planning our biennial conference in the waterfront hall and drew attendees attention to the date.

Our current board hopes to continue to serve for the next year with one notable exception...

After many years of dedication and hard work both locally and nationally Pearse Stinson is standing down from the board.

Susan Nelson led a vote of thanks to Pearse highlighting how his enthusiasm and dedication have grown the FGDP from small beginnings to become the strong force in NI dentistry it is today and was joined in an enthusiastic applause.

John-Joe Hartigan presented the financial statements
